Secure Technology products and services are available through specially selected and authorised partners and resellers. Secure Technology Partners are highly specialised organisations that have demonstrated abilities to understand and resolve your security issues and needs.

By selecting a Secure Technology Partner you can be assured of the best levels of service and integrity currently available. All Secure Technology Partners have undergone training in the entire range of Secure Technology products and are able to provide full installation, configuration, management and training.

Secure Technology is always interested in expanding it's areas of representation and would welcome approaches from people or companies interested in representing us in local markets.
